

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, September 7, 1943

Died: Friday, August 20, 2021

Wallace Richard Taylor Sr. , 77, of Wells Tannery, passed away at UPMC Pinnacle in Harrisburg, PA due to complications with Covid-19.

Born in Hopewell on September 7, 1943, a son of the late Shelly and Alice Taylor.

On April 17, 1987 he was united in marriage to Wanda J. (Bradshaw) Taylor who survives at their home.

Also surviving are daughter, Wendy J. Taylor of Wells Tannery, son, Wallace A. Taylor of Duncannon, daughter Denise Brown of Dudley, daughter Yvonne Bollman and a son Mark Taylor both of Saxton, and 16 grandchildren.

Along with his parents he was preceded in death by 2 sons, Wallace R. Taylor Jr. and David Taylor as well as 4 sisters and 5 brothers.

He enjoyed life to the fullest, and he will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He enjoyed playing and singing at local open stage music events and attending auctions as well as hunting, fishing, and riding his motorcycle in the summer. Due to concerns regarding Covid-19 A memorial service will be announced and held at a later date.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Curtis A. Heath Funeral Home Inc. 5010 Railroad Ave. Broad Top City, PA. 16621. Online condolences can be made at www.caheathfh.com.

Service Summary

Family to do services at later date

Location: - Not available -

Remembering His Beautiful Song

God gave him his own unique song -----

It's one that will play
his entire life long.

Through the Love that he gave
and the gifts that he shared.

Through the memories he made
and the dreams that he dare.

It's a song filled with beauty and day to day grace, That played through his life till he saw God's face.

A song that is heard in the heart, loud and clear

A song if we listen,
We'll always still hear.